

We are pleased to announce the following prepared motions for the 2013 World Schools Debating Championships, to be held in Antalya, Turkey.

Preliminary Rounds*

This house supports greater US military presence in East Asia.

This house believes that important decisions about children's health should be made by medical professionals and not by their parents.

This house would cease the exploitation of resources in the Arctic region.

This house supports sovereign debt default as a legitimate economic strategy for countries.

The exact rounds in which these motions will be debated are being finalized with the organisers and will be made known in due course.*

Grand Final

This house believes that Turkey is better off outside the European Union.
